The Eighth Annual Opening. Every year for the past eight years there has been a holiday opening at Mertz's Modern Pharmacy. These openings are occasions indeed. This season's opening, which is attracting crowds of friends and patrons to the well-known corner does not fell to this well-known corner, does not fall short, in magnificence, of any of its pre-decessors. Potted palms and chrysanthemums abound. The florists have excelled themselves in producing some of the most beautiful effects imaginable. But the flowbeautiful effects imaginatie. But the includers do not absorb all the attention by a ers do not absorb all the attention by a great deal. Magnificent holiday articles of all kinds add materially to the general ef-fect. Mr. Mertz's invitation to all is being heartily accepted and appreciated.

The committee memorials reported suitable resolutions in regard to the deaths of William Campbell of Page county and C. C. Benn of Richmond, which were adopted. A committee consisting of Mrs. A. S. Woodhouse, Mrs. A. J. Pyle and Mrs. S. E. Bailey was appointed to consider the advisability of organizing at the consideration of the college. ganizing a temperance institute. On call of the lodges, eight hundred subscribers were pledged for the Good Templar News. J. F. Birrell offered a resolution reducing the per capita tax from fifteen to twelve and a half cents per quarter, which was laid on the table by a practically unanir vote. The executive committee reported a list of the appointed officers for the ensuing year, which was approved. The grand lodge officers were then installed by the supreme templar, assisted by J. W. Van Vleck, R. W. G. M., and Mrs. A. J. Pyle, acting assistant grand marshal, as follows, viz.: Rev. R. E. White, G. C. T.; Prof. O. Stone, grand counsellor; Mrs. J. M. Thorne, G. V. T.; Geo. W. Woodhouse of Staunton, on behalf of Mountain City lodge, extended an invitation for the grand lodge in that city and the invitation was unani-mously accepted. Another effort was made to reduce the per capita tax, but was again iaid on the table. Mr. H. M. Trimble offer-red a resolution of thanks to Pioneer Lodge.

No. 1, and the citizens generally, for the hospitality accorded the delegates to the session, which was adopted.

Rev. S. A. Ball offered the following resolution. which was adopted, viz.: That the Grand Lodge of Good Templars recommend and uses assembly the session of an and urge appointment in each lodge of an agent to solicit subscribers for the Good Templar News, to test the sentiment of the lodges as to publishing it semi-monthly. At the night session the unwritten work of the order and marshal's drill was exem-plified by the supreme templar in a most exceilent manner, for which the Grand Lodge showed its appreciation. The Grand Lodge also expressed its greetings and co-operation with the District Grand Lodge in its efforts for temperance legislation in the District. At a late hour Thursday night the Grand Lodge closed with its usual annual "love feast," at which short, earnest addresses were made by Professor O. Stone, C. H. Smith, H. M. Trimble, J. F. Birrell, F. R. Smith, H. M. Trimble, J. F. Birrell, F. R. Holland, W. H. Dunlap, S. P. Rumsey, Rev. S. A. Ball, Rev. R. E. White, W. They Claim Damages. A libel in personam has been filed by Mr Randall Hagner on behalf of Charles Burnett et al., owners of the schooner Ellen Tobin, against Chas. G. Smith and Chas G. Smith, jr., as lessees, in possession of a certain wharf near the foot of High street, Georgetown, alleging that the said lessees had employed the schooner to come into the wharf and there had leaded it with stone; that owing to the careless and negligent conduct of said lessees and of the condithe berth connected with the said wharf, the schooner was loaded down upon a rock at the bottom of the berth in front of the wharf, and that in consequence of the said negligence the schooner had her back broken and became a total loss. The libelers therefore claim $15,000 damages

better illustrated than in the two plays presented at Albaugh's Opera House last night "Tartuffe" and "Les Precieuses Ridicules." In the former his hypocrisy was never dropped, the character was consistent throughout, and in all the details of facial expression, action and intonation M. Coquelin was perfect. In this play M. Coquelin, jr., was seen to excellent advantage as Orgon, and showed how carefully he had studied the methods of his famous sire, and how greatly he had profited by that study. Mme. Hading made a charming Elmire, and second piece Coquelin, as the bogus Mascaifested, perhaps, more by his masterly perof his art, and justifies his title to preeminence on the stage. Tonight "The Taming of the Shrew," under the title of "Le Megere Apprivoissee," will be given, and both M. Coquelin and Mme. Hading will be seen to advantage. Last night both M. Coquelin and Mme. Hading were presented with handsome floral tributes from the French club, "Les Precleuses Ridicules," of this city.
New National Theater.—Nat Goodwin will be the attraction at the National Theater

next week in his new play "In Mizzouri."
Academy of Music.—There will be a seasen of English opera at the Academy next and "Cavalleria Rusticana;" Wednesday, matinee, "Bohemian Giri;" night, "Lohengrin;" Thursday, "Carmen;" Friday, "Faust;" Saturday matinee, "I Pagliace!" and scenes from "Martha;" night, "Car-

Albaugh's Opera House .- Miss Carrie Turner will be the attraction at this theater next week in a repertoire of plays, the first of which will be an adaptation of Dumas' famous work, which is called "The Edge of Society." Miss Turner has been de-scribed as a woman whose rare talent as an actress is only surpassed by her charming and winsome personality, one who brings to the impersonation of her powerful emotional roles an intellectual responsiveness and ready sympathy, which make her acting all one could wish for. To a voice of rare sweetness, flexibility and power she adds grace of movement, a handsome face and an irresistible charm of manner that never fail to win the admiration of her audience and the unstinted praise of the most discriminating critics. In the "Edge of Society" she has a part which she has made thoroughly her own, since she origi-nated it in this country. Many have attempted to play the piece, but they have invariably failed in the light and delicate shades which Miss Turner has invested the part of Suzanne. Harris' Bijou Theater.—The attraction at Harris' Bijou Theater the coming week will be that fun-making farce comedy, "Fin-negan's Ball." Murray and Mack are the leading spirits of the occasion. Finnegan gives a ball and invites a company of peowho pass the time in singing, dancing and repartee. Private theatricals are progress, other visitors, who have not been told that the love making and tragedy are simulated, arrive upon the scene and precipitate some very ludicrous complications. While "Finnegan's Ball" makes no pretensions beyond being a fin de siecle combination of what the people like in fun, melody, dancing and specialty performance, it really has much ingenuity of plot. Among the people who appear are George H. Emerick, Walter Fredericks, Rich. E. Lynch, Herbert Dillea, Fred. Archer, Mark Davis, Stella Deane, Pearle Hight, Lonnie Deane and Ada Jewell. Both money and care have been freely expended in securing not only a talented company, but artistic features in cencry and costuming as well.

Kernan's Lyceum Theater.—The Rose Hill English Folly Company will be the attraction at the Lyceum next week. The organization is said to be very extravagant in pretty girls, droll comedians, charming dances, marches, drills, tableaux and stat-ues. The French quadrille will be a feature of the performance. The concluding feature entitled serves to introduce the full strength of the company, including a chorus of thirty voices, clever soubrettes and funny knockabout comiques. In the company are: Ved-der sisters, French eccentriques; Morton and Eckhof, musical artists; Daly and Lee, and Eckhor, musical artists; Daly and Lee, the Irish warblers; the Washburn sisters, the original comedy duo; E. J. Holland, king of the air, and Julia Kelly, the only lady bone soloist in the world. Boston Symphony Orchestra.—The Boston

Symphony Orchestra will give the second concert in its series at Metzerott Hali next concert in its series at Metzerott Hall next Monday evening. Mr. Franz Kneisel will be the soloist. The program includes the symphony in F, Goetz; first movement of the concerto for violin. Beethoven; symphonic poem, "Omphale's Spinning Wheel;" Saint-Saens, and overture, "Lenore No. 3."

Beethoven.

A musical and literary entertainment, by Wm. C. Frissell, will be given at Hayden Hall, corner 4 1-2 street and Pennsylvania avenue, next Friday evening. The program will be carefully selected, and an enjoyable evening is promised. One of the principal attractions will be the singing and fancy dancing of Miss Magdaleen Turnburke. Fisk Jubilee Singers.—The return of the Loudin company of Original Fisk Jubilee Singers to the city will be hailed with delight by those who remember the wonderful jubilee voices, which delighted such large audiences before their six years' tour around the world. This company will ap-pear at Calvary Baptist Church on next Wednesday evening, and, it is safe to say, will be greeted by a full house. Seats are on sale at White's music store, No. 935 F street northwest, and can be had at the church on the 13th.

Miss Richrds' Lecture.—On Wednesday evening next Miss Richards will repeat her interesting lecture on the "White City by the Lake" at the Foundry M. E. Church under the auspices of a band of the "King's Daughters," the proceeds of the lecture to be devoted to the heating apparatus fund of the Central Union Mission, Those who have not heard Miss Richards' lecture can. by attending, enjoy the double pleasure of a visit to the vanishing city, under intelli-gent guidance, together with the pleasant consciousness of aiding a worthy charity. The lecture will be profusely illustrated with stereopticon views, and will niclude a glance at the midway.

Reduced Pay.

Some of those who have employment will barely be able to get the necessities of life. Witness this letter addressed to The Star today from "One of the Trackmen." I think it is only right to draw public attention to the fact that the Baltimore and Potomac railway has cut down the pay of the section hands and track laborers to 717 Market Space. $1.12 1-2 per day. Those men, as everybody knows, are the hardest worked employes in the railway service. Their work is the neaviest and most laborious and they have o contend with all kinds of weather. Their pay before this cut was scarcely enough to give their wives and families the neces-saries of life; now, after they pay house rent, they will have scarcely anything left. The majority of those who suffer by this cut are married men, some with large familles to support, and I think it is just and proper that public attention should be directed to this piece of flagrant injustice.

Mistaken in the Man.

To the Editor of The Evening Star: While it is not a matter of any special importance I would say your reporter was mistaken when he represented me as appearing before the Senate District comcertain streets. I was not at the Capitol at all, and more-ever, I am not in favor of any such project, unless the bill shall provide that the money shall be paid to residents of the District only and the work be done in the various sections of the District in fair proportion. If not thus limited the result will be an influx of laborers from the outside, who, as soon as the money is used up, will be left on our hands, thus adding that many more to be provided for at the public ex-

GRAND LODGE VISITATION.

The versatility of M. Coquelin was never Addresses and a Pleasant Time. Yesterday evening was the occasion of the regular semi-annual visitation of the Grand Lodge to Columbia Lodge, No. 10, I. O. O. F. The exercises were of an unusually interesting character, and the attendance was very large. The Grand Canton and Canton Potomac were present as escort to the Grand Lodge. The grand master made a the deputy grand master, who spoke encouragingly and hopefully of the order. Brother John T. Given, P. G. R., made one of his characteristic addresses, which stirred the enthusiasm of the members and visitors to frequent applause.

A poem was read by H. C. Hazard, P. G. appropriate to the occasion. Thos. W. Fowler, P. G. M., read a short history been over 1.100 names on its rolls, and it has paid out over $71,000 for the relief of The orator of the evening, Rev. James C.

Easton, D. D., pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian Church, was then introduced. His address was replete with history, wit, metaphor and prophecy. He joined the order in Scotland when but seventeen years of age being then a member of the juvenile ganization, and has ever since cherished the three links. At the conclusion of the address P. G. M.

Fowler, on behalf of the lodge, presented Grand Master Wood a beautiful basket of flowers, and P. G. Richard Emmons of Union Lodge presented a like token of esteem on behalf of the lodge to Dr. Easton.

CRUSTED SCALY SKIN.

Columbia Lodge Furnishes Some Fine TORMENTS MINISTER'S FAMILY. ALMOST DROVE WIFE MAD. DOCTORS USELESS. INSTANT RELIEF AND SPEEDY CURE BY CUTICURA.

Three years ago my wife, four little children and myself were afflicted with a crusty, scaly disease of the skin. It tormented us all. Such a plague hope will never again visit my family. My children's ages were respectively nine, seven and four years, except the youngest, who was only two months old. Of all our suffering my wife most. It almost drove her mad. The disease few appropriate remarks, and then called on first made its appearance on my wife's back between the shoulders and spread across to her breast. It looked like it was covered over with little scales. I first bought of a drug store medicine for skin disease, which failed to do any good whatever. I next employed a doctor, who gave relief for a short while. After trying him for quite s while without effecting a cure I called in another doctor, who proved to do no better than the first. After this I bought CUTICURA REMEDIES of Messrs, Purcell, Ladd & Co., Richmond, Va., havthe lodge, showing that it was instituted in ing read of them in a newspaper. Relief followed 1840, and during its existence there have the first application, and five or six sets cured all of us. I do not know what the disease was we had-it affected us all alike, but I do know CUTI-CURA cured us of that skin disease

Rev. J. N. WOODS, Avon. Nelson Co., Va. I have used your CUTICURA REMEDIES for cases said to be incurable by good doctors, and they cured me at once. They are the best skin and blood remedies in the world.
